Company A Multispeciality Hospital

Gangapur Road, Nashik - 422013 · Tel: +91 253 2345678

Ultrasound Abdomen & Pelvis Sonography Report

Patient Name: Rajendra Pawar Document Date: 2026-11-08

Department of Radio-Diagnosis & Imaging

Clinical Indication: Severe right hypochondrial pain and fever

Liver: Normal in size and parenchymal echotexture. No focal lesion.

Gall Bladder: Distended, contains multiple mobile calculi. Largest stone 14 mm.

GB wall thickened (4.5 mm) with pericholecystic fluid, positive sonographic Murphy.

Common Bile Duct: 4.2 mm, within normal limits. No choledocholithiasis.

Pancreas and Spleen: Normal echotexture.

Impression: Cholelithiasis with features of acute calculous cholecystitis.